

Profile

Brig. (Retd)

Prof. Dr. Maqsood ul Hassan

Dr. Maqsood ul Hassan is Vice Principal of Islamic International Medical College (IIMC) Riphah International University. He is an alumnus of Dow Medical College and did his matric and Intermediate from Cadet College Petaro. He has been trained in Community Medicine, successfully attaining his postgraduate qualification of DPH and MCPS in the year 1990 and MSc. Medical Administration from Quaid-e-Azam University in 2000. He has also undertaken professional courses, attaining distinction in all of them, and is the recipient of Burki Gold Medal for standing first in MSc. Furthermore, he also successfully attended medical strategic leadership course at St. Fort Hood, USA in 2008. He has also to his credit Postgraduate Diploma in Professional Ethics & Teaching Methodology and in addition certificate courses in Medical education and Life-Style Medicine. He is also International Board Certified in Life Style medicine.

He has a rich varied experience of academics, medical administration and policy making. He has been teaching Community Medicine to undergraduate and postgraduate students since 1990 and was a member of the board of studies as well as was an active faculty member and now visiting faculty, of MSc Medical Administration for postgraduate students. He has been supervising thesis work of MPH students as well as those of MSc Medical Administration. He is also teaching medical ethics and professionalism to undergraduate and postgraduate students at IIMC. In addition he also is resource person for Undergraduate and Postgraduate courses in Life Style Medicine and patient Safety.

He has authored 15 papers. He is one of the editors Of Journal of Islamic International Medical College and reviewer of scientific papers for Foundation University Medical Journal (FUMJ). He was a member of the editorial board and the editorial referee of Pak Armed Forces Journal. He has also been the editor of Annual Health Report, Pakistan Air Force from 1996 to 1999 and that of Pak. Army 2001 & 2002. He is also Editor In-charge "Al-Razi", the College students' magazine.

In addition to being an academician, he is an astute administrator and successfully commanded two major hospitals of Pakistan Army at Muzaffarabad and Peshawar. He has also been involved in policy making; serving at the headquarters of Pakistan Army and Pakistan Air Force and was awarded commendation Certificate by the Service Chief for re-modelling and modernizing paramedics training practices in Pakistan Air Force. He has been actively involved in organizing national and International Conferences on Patient Safety, Medical education and Life Style Medicine.